

File Format	Supported/Not Supported	Notes
.pdf	Supported	The quality of the output could be low if the document has at least one of the following characteristics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • scanned documents • many tables, lists or columns • a lot of information in the footer/header section • documents too short (< 1/2 page) or too long (> 50 pages)
.doc, .docx, .odt, .rtf	Supported	The quality of the output could be low if the document has at least one of the following characteristics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • many tables, lists or columns • a lot of information in the footer/header section
.ppt	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.pptx	Supported	The quality of the output is low if the presentation is made of multiple slides containing few words each
.txt	Supported	/
.mp4	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.mp3	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.mov	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.ogg	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.wav	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.jpg, .jpeg, .gif, .png	Supported	We perform an Optical

		Character Recognition process to extract text from the image. The text length needs to be at least 20 words to produce an acceptable output.
SCORM	Supported by the end of 2021	/
TinCan	Supported by the end of 2021	/
.HTML, .htm	Supported	When choosing the type of source, select the Link source type and not the Document source